For the landing page (`/products/free-claude-starter`) AND social CTAs.

H1 (hero)

3 Claude Code skills I use every day. Free. Yours.

Sub-hero

No 3-hour course. No "intro to AI". Just 3 `.md` files you drop into your Claude folder that turn your terminal into a hyper-powered assistant in 30 minutes.

Value bullets (max 3 — what's in the pack)

- A content-creator skill that ships Reels scripts, Insta captions and carousels on demand
- A morning-planner skill that plans your day 80/20-style (reads your Google Cal, surfaces your 3 priorities, builds the schedule)
- An excalidraw-diagram skill that turns a sentence into a clean, editable diagram

Short variants (for stories / posts / DM replies)

Variant 1 — Curiosity gap

3 Claude Code skills running my business. I'm giving them away. Link in bio.

Variant 2 — Challenge

Still using Claude.ai in the browser? You're missing 80% of what it can actually do. 3 skills, free, to level up.

Variant 3 — Specificity

3 Claude Code skills (.md) + a 6-page guide to install them in 30 min. Free. Link in my bio.

Variant 4 — Journey / proof

Took me 8 months to figure out how to exploit Claude Code properly. You start in 30 minutes. Free.

Delivery email (subject + body)

Subject: Your 3 Claude Code skills (install now)

Body: Hey,

Here's the pack. Download here → [ZIP_LINK]

Inside:

- 3 `.md` skills to drop into your Claude folder (`~/.claude/skills/`)
- A bilingual guide explaining install, triggering, and how to go further

My tip: start with morning-planner. It's the fastest to test (just say "plan my day" in Claude Code) and you'll instantly feel the potential.

Once you've tested, hit reply and tell me which one's your favorite. I read everything.

Go play.
